come, come, whoever you are. wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving. it doesn't matter. ours is not a caravan of despair. come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times.
come, yet again

"love will find you" cunningham/hermanson you may be watching from a safe distance you may be so close you can taste the blood you may have headed for higher ground you may be drowning in the flood no matter what you do - o - o love will find you you may have lost what little faith you had you may believe with all your heart you may be pulling yourself together again you may be falling apart

no matter what you do - o - o love will find you one of you sees that love's a long lost friend one of you can't recognize her face one of you runs to her with open arms one of you falls down in disgrace you may see a million different gateways home you may think there's only one way through you may be waiting for the kingdom to come you may believe it's in you no matter what you do - o - o love will find you love will find you love will find you exodus 20: 1, 12-16 and god spoke these words to moses, respect your father and your mother, and you will live a long time in the land i am giving you. do not murder. be faithful in marriage. do not steal. do not tell lies about others.

luke 18: 18-26

a certain ruler asked him, "good teacher, what must i do to inherit eternal life?" jesus said to him, "why do you call me good? no one is good but god alone. you know the commandments: 'you shall not commit adultery; you shall not murder; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; honor your father and mother.” he replied, “i have kept all these since my youth.” when jesus heard this, he said to him, “there is still one thing lacking. sell all that you own and distribute the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” but when he heard this, he became sad; for he was very rich. jesus looked at him and said, “how hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of god! indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of god.” those who heard this said, “then who can be saved?”

celebrating communion

“love hear my voice” wills love, hear my voice through the silence and the noise peace is welcome in, welcome in love, fill my heart pull me close where i'm apart peace is welcome in, welcome in love, be my guide even as i close my eyes love, be here now be here now love, sing my words so that every one is heard

love is all around all around blessing

“I am willing” near i am open and i am willing for to be hopeless would seem so strange it dishonors those who go before us so lift me up to the light of change some thoughts for the journey the internal machinery of life, the chemistry of the parts, is something beautiful. and it turns out that all life is interconnected with all other life. - richard feynman freedom and responsibility aren't interconnected things. they are the same thing. - harry browne god is a great underground river that no one can dam up and no one can stop. - meister eckhart in our interconnected world, we must learn to feel enlarged, not threatened, by difference. - jonathan sacks
