come, come, whoever you are. wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving. it doesn't matter. ours is not a caravan of despair.
come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times.

"sing a song" mayer

we know this river always keeps flowing we will be rowing our whole lives long and we may never know where we're going but we can go there singing a song just like a mother to a child she's holding just like a soldier marching along just like the faithful on sunday morning raising our voices, singing a song chorus: eyes will shine but not as bright arms will hold, but not as tight when a word is only spoken so give it feeling, give it rhyme play it in four quarter time sing it with a heart wide open sing of the beauty right there beside you bring it inside you, making you strong so that when trouble comes round to grieve you still it will leave you singing a song chorus

and may the music of life overtake us till angels mistake us for a heavenly throng and may that joyful sound be our shelter and find us together, singing a song we'll be together, singing a song passing the peace

gift of story

"out beyond ideas" rumi/wilcox chorus: out beyond ideas of wrong doing and right doing there is a field, i'll meet you there.

and the soul lies down in that grass the world is too full to talk about.
ideas and language,
even the phrase "each other",
doesn't make any sense.

kairos moment

(the ancient greeks had two words for time, chronos and kairos. kairos is "a time in between" – sacred time opening our hearts and minds jon taylor

philippians 4: 4-12 (ceb)

rejoice in the lord always; again i will say, rejoice. let your reasonableness be known to everyone. the lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to god. and the peace of god, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in christ.

finally, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the god of peace will be with you.

i rejoiced in the lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. you were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. not that i am speaking of being in need, for i have learned in whatever situation i am to be content. i know how to be brought low, and i know how to abound. in any and every circumstance, i have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need.
