“sing a song” peter mayer we know this river always keeps flowing we will be rowing our whole lives long and we may never know where we're going but we can go there singing a song just like a mother to a child she's holding just like a soldier marching along just like the faithful on sunday morning raising our voices, singing a song chorus: eyes will shine but not as bright arms will hold, but not as tight when a word is only spoken so give it feeling, give it rhyme play it in four quarter time sing it with a heart wide open sing of the beauty right there beside you bring it inside you, making you strong so that when trouble comes round to grieve you still it will leave you singing a song chorus

and may the music of life overtake us till angels mistake us for a heavenly throng and may that joyful sound be our shelter and find us together, singing a song we'll be together, singing a song jeremiah 29:7-8

but seek the welfare of the city where i have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. for thus says the LORD of hosts, the god of israel: do not let your prophets and your diviners who are among you deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams which they dream.

luke 10: 1, 3 -9

after this the lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. he said to them, “... go on your way. see, i am come, come, whoever you are. wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving. it doesn't matter. ours is not a caravan of despair. come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times. come, yet again gathering prayer sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. whatever house you enter, first say, 'peace to this house!' and if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. do not move about from house to house. whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'the kingdom of god has come near to you.'

our shared table

"come, thou fount of every blessing" traditional come thou fount of every blessing tune my heart to sing thy grace streams of mercy, never ceasing call for songs of loudest praise. teach me some melodious sonnet sung by flaming tongues above praise the mount! i'm fixed upon it mount of thy redeeming love.

oh, to grace how great a debtor daily i'm con-strained to be! let thy goodness, like a fetter bind my wand'ring heart to thee.
prone to wander, how i feel it, the earth below and the sky above;
faced with risks or any danger, i move onward in thy love.
