come, come, whoever you are. wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving. it doesn't matter. ours is not a caravan of despair. come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times. come, yet again gathering prayer

offering song

offerings go toward the support of fumcfw ministries, including eleven:eleven. the one dollar bills collected in october will support the first street methodist mission clothing bank.

“joyful, joyful we adore thee” trad joyful, joyful, we adore thee, god of glory, lord of love;

hearts unfold like flowers before thee, opening to the sun above melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the dark of doubt away.
giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day!

all thy works with joy surround thee, earth and heaven reflect thy rays.
stars and angels sing around thee, center of unbroken praise.
field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, chanting bird and flowing fountain, call us to rejoice in thee.

mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began love divine is reigning o'er us, binding all within its span ever singing, move we onward, victors in the midst of strife joyful music leads us sunward in the triumph song of life passing the peace

“all shall be well”

all shall be well
all shall be well
and all manner of things shall be well
all shall be well

kairos moment

(the ancient greeks had two words for time, chronos and kairos. kairos is “a time in between” – sacred time mark 4:35-40 the message (msg) late that day he said to them, "let's go across to the other side." they took him in the boat as he was. other boats followed along nearby. a huge storm started. waves poured into the boat, threatening to sink it. and jesus was in the stern, head on a pillow, sleeping! they roused him, saying, "teacher, is it nothing to you that we're going down?"

now wide awake, he told the wind to pipe down and said to the sea, "peace! be still!" the wind ran out of breath; the sea became smooth as glass. jesus reprimanded the disciples: "why are you such cowards? don't you have any faith at all?"

from the tao de ching (chap 15) the person with outward courage dares to die; but the one with inner courage dares to live. do you have the courage to wait till your mud settles and the water is clear? can you remain unmoving till the right action arises by itself?

some thoughts for the journey if you try to change it, you will ruin it. try to hold it, and you will lose it. — lao tzu you find peace not by rearranging the circumstances of your life, but by realizing who you are at the deepest level. — eckart tolle if there's no inner peace, people can't give it to you. your partner can't give it to you. your children can't give it to you. you have to give it to you. — linda evans we don't realize that, somewhere within us all, there does exist a supreme self who is eternally at peace. — elizabeth gilbert
