the welcome candle

ann diamond

come, come, whoever you are. wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving. it doesn't matter. ours is not a caravan of despair. come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times. come, yet again

gathering prayer

offering song

offerings go toward the support of fumcfw ministries, including eleven:eleven. the one dollar bills collected in november will support the community advocate financial assistance program.

as part of our focus on creating a strong financial finish to 2019, every $20 bill placed in the offering today will be designated to the 2019 finish strong campaign. you can also make your contributions by check or online at fumcfw.org/givenow.

“love will find you”

written by cunningham/hermanson you may be watching from a safe distance you may be so close you can taste the blood you may have headed for higher ground you may be drowning in the flood no matter what you do - o - o love will find you you may have lost what little faith you had you may believe with all your heart you may be pulling yourself together again you may be falling apart

no matter what you do - o - o love will find you one of you sees that love's a long lost friend one of you can't recognize her face one of you runs to her with open arms one of you falls down in disgrace you may see a million different gateways home you may think there's only one way through you may be waiting for the kingdom to come you may believe it's in you no matter what you do - o - o love will find you love will find you love will find you

“god of movement”

(lyrics on the screen)

kairos moment

(the ancient greeks had two words for time, chronos and kairos. kairos is “a time in between” – sacred time)

opening our hearts

jim mullins

jeremiah 17: 9-12, 14-18

"the heart is hopelessly dark and deceitful, a puzzle that no one can figure out. but i, god, search the heart and examine the mind i get to the heart of the human. i get to the root of things. i treat them as they really are, not as they pretend to be." like a cowbird that cheats by laying its eggs in another bird's nest is the person who gets rich by cheating. when the eggs hatch, the deceit is exposed. what a fool he'll look like then!

god, pick up the pieces, put me back together again, you are my praise! listen to how they talk about me: "so where's this 'word of god'? we'd like to see something happen!" but it wasn't my idea to call for doomsday. i never wanted trouble. you know what i've said. it's all out in the open before you. don't add to my troubles. give me some relief!

some thoughts for the journey you do not think yourself into a new way of living as much as you live your way into a new way of thinking. — richard rohr you can't depend on your eyes when your imagination is out of focus. — mark twain of course! the path to heaven doesn't lie down in flat miles. it's the imagination with which you perceive this world, and the gestures with which you honor it. — mary oliver
