passing the peace

gift of song

"if i were to pray" gaby/thompson

if i were to pray, if i were to pray in the breaking of the morning or the dying of the day
what would i say, what would i say what would my heart speak if i were to pray?

if i were to sing, if i were to sing if my soul could give some honest offering what would i bring, what would i bring what are the simple truths my soul would want to sing?

and if i do, will not the earth bend near?
will not the sacred life in all creation
turn to lend an ear?
will not my song throughout the cosmos ring
and swim that crystal river that flows through everything?

kairos moment

karen walker

*(the ancient greeks had two words for time, chronos and kairos.
kairos is "a time in between" – sacred time*

opening our hearts

mary jane bowman

micah 6:6-8

"with what should i come before the lord, and bow down before heaven? shall i come before god with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? will the lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? shall i give my firstborn child, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

god has told you, o mortal one, what is good—and what does the lord require of you, but to do justice and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with god?

galations 3:26-28 (adapted from common english version)

for in christ jesus you are all children of god through faith. as many of you as were baptized into christ have clothed yourselves with christ. there is no longer jew or greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in christ jesus.

tao te ching (#5)

the tao doesn't take sides; it gives birth to both good and evil. the master doesn't take sides; she welcomes both saints and sinners. the tao is like a bellows: it is empty yet infinitely capable. the more you use it, the more it produces; the more you talk of it, the less you understand. hold on to the center.
