Sanctuary Service

“Having the Mind of Christ,” fifth in the series A Healthy Spirituality for Our Time | Philippians 2:1-11 | Dr. Tim Bruster

1. Paul says in the first verse of our scripture text for Sunday that his joy would be complete if the Christians in Philippi would think and behave in a certain way: “Therefore, if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort in love, any sharing in the Spirit, any sympathy, complete my joy by thinking the same way, having the same love, being united, and agreeing with each other.” It has been said that where two or three are gathered there are four or five opinions. In what ways do you think Paul is calling for Christians to agree with one another?
2. What does it mean to have the mind of Christ in us? Or, to put it in the words of the CEB, what does it mean to adopt the attitude that was in Christ Jesus?
3. What changes would you have to make in your thinking and even in your living to “adopt the attitude that was in Christ Jesus?”

The Gathering

Rev. Dr. Zhenya Gurina-Rodriguez, “Let’s Be Real” | Genesis 16

1. What brings you hope during this season? How do you encourage people around you?
2. How have you helped or served others in the last few weeks?
3. What areas of Healthy Plate Discipleship are you focusing on the most at the moment? (worship, pray, give, serve, play, learn)

DiscipleChurch

Charme Robarts

1. In Christ we live resurrecting and resurrected lives. Discuss that idea and how it meets the grind of life. What is dying and what is emerging.
2. Are you able to be graceful to your selves and others with the fact that dying and emerging is a never ending struggle? How do you do that? What are the tools in your box that help you accept that we are always unfinished business? Try to avoid cliché answers (God isn't finished with me).
