All Saints' Day is the celebration of people of faith who have contributed to the creation of God's kingdom. These saints were not perfect, but were people who were trying to listen to God's word and live God's call. This is the "communion of saints" — that fellowship of believers that reaches beyond time and place, even beyond death.

Choral Call to Worship

*Call to Worship

Dr. Zhenya Gurina-Rodriguez, Associate Pastor

One: On this All Saints’ Sunday give thanks for the countless saints who have blazed a trail of courage through time.

All: We give thanks for the tender touch of loved ones, the example of heroes, and the healing words of comforters.

One: We give thanks for the gentle strength of grandmothers, the loyalty of friends, the joy of children, and the sacrifice of parents.

All: We give thanks for the love of Jesus shown in the lives of his faithful followers who have gone before us.

One: We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the Lord.

All: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses let us worship God with joy!

*Hymn 711: For All the Saints verses 1 and 2

*Affirmation of Faith 883

We are not alone, we live in God’s world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church:

to celebrate God’s presence,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us.

We are not alone.

Thanks be to God. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. (Matthew 6:9-13)
