gift of story

read by dan manning

john 20:19-25 (the inclusive bible) in the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were locked in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the temple authorities.

jesus came and stood among them and said, “peace be with you.” having said this, the savior showed them the marks of crucifixion. the disciples were filled with joy when they saw jesus, who said to them again, “peace be with you. as abba god sent me, so i’m sending you.” after saying this, jesus breathed on them and said, “receive the holy spirit. if you forgive anyone’s sins, they are forgiven.

if you retain anyone’s sins, they are retained.” it happened that one of the twelve, thomas—nicknamed “twin”—was absent when jesus came.

he other disciples kept telling him, “we’ve seen jesus!” thomas’ answer was, “i’ll never believe it without putting my finger in the nail marks and my hand into the spear wound.”

go in pieces.
old ideas have been upended our faith transcended amended

and in all the unraveling we find we are traveling together
into something larger

of which all are a part,
to invite the confusion to diffuse the illusion and find the place of meeting again for the first time.

so... go in pieces,
to see and feel and share the world anew!

thoughts for further reflection the road to faith after doubt is often lonely. but beyond the loneliness, you discover a place of solidarity where everything is sacred and everything belongs, including your doubts and including you. - brian mcclaren be a good ancestor. stand for something bigger than yourself. add value to the earth during your sojourn. - marian wright edelman it's easy to count the seeds in one apple, but much harder to count the apples in one seed. - proverb
