gift of story

i john 4: 16-21 (nrsvue) god is love, and those who abide in love abide in god, and god abides in them. love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. there is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. we love^[a] because god first loved us. those who say, “i love god,” and hate a brother or sister are liars, for those who do not love a brother or sister, whom they have seen, cannot love god, whom they have not seen. the commandment we have from jesus is this: those who love god must love their brothers and sisters also.

go in pieces.
old ideas have been upended our faith transcended amended

and in all the unraveling we find we are traveling together
into something larger

of which all are a part,
to invite the confusion to diffuse the illusion and find the place of meeting again for the first time.

so... go in pieces,
to see and feel and share the world anew!

thoughts for further reflection

"there is a soul at the center of nature, and over the will of every human being. it has so infused its strong enchantment into nature, that we prosper when we accept its advice."
