gift of story

acts 17: 22-31 (the inclusive bible)

read by john taylor

then paul stood up before the council of the areopagus and delivered this address: “citizens of athens, i note that in every respect you are scrupulously religious. as i walked about looking at your shrines, i even discovered an altar inscribed, ‘to an unknown god.’ now, what you are worshipping in ignorance i intend to make known to you. “for the god who made the world and all that is in it, the sovereign of heaven and earth, doesn’t live in sanctuaries made by human hands, and isn’t served by humans, as if in need of anything. no! god is the one who gives everyone life, breath—everything. from one person god created all of humankind to inhabit the entire earth, and set the time for each nation to exist and the exact place where each nation should dwell. god did this so that human beings would seek, reach out for, and perhaps find the one who is not really far from any of us— the one in whom we live and move and have our being.

as one of your poets has put it, ‘we too are god’s children.’

go in pieces.
old ideas have been upended our faith transcended amended

and in all the unraveling we find we are traveling together
into something larger

of which all are a part,
to invite the confusion to diffuse the illusion and find the place of meeting again for the first time.

so... go in pieces,
to see and feel and share the world anew!

thoughts for further reflection for everything that lives is holy, life delights in life...
