psalm 150

(adapted, a work in progress, tom mcdermott)

life! isn't it exciting!

traffic in the delight humming, vibrating, in this very moment!

give your very substance and soul into the delight!

give it away freely as it is freely given across all space and time!

traffic in the creativity that moves in everything and everywhere;

give yourself to the abundance of this love that invites greater love into this space!

traffic in it with loud horns from the highest places!

traffic in it with soft strings and attentive harmonies!

move about freely in its love with dance and softness,

and with banjos, guitars, violins, and ocarinas!

traffic in this love with percussion and rhythm

and the clear resonant tones of bells

as well as the crashing of trash cans, cymbals, chaos!

listen! for its sound is everywhere, as every breath,

at every level of life and death,

gives voice to the sound of love's delight!
