gift of story

read by kay johnson

john 15: 5-8

“i am the vine, you are the branches. when you’re joined with my purpose and vision and i am joined with you, the relationship is intimate and organic; the harvest is sure to be abundant. separated from this, you can’t produce a thing. anyone who fails to see this is like deadwood, to be gathered up and thrown on the bonfire. but if you make yourselves at home with me, and my words are at home in you, you can be sure that whatever you seek will be heard and acted upon. this is how the source of life is revealed — when you produce grapes, when you mature as co-creative, compassionate human beings.
