john 3:14 -18 (inclusive bible)

as moyses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so the chosen one must be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in the chosen one might have eternal life. yes, god so loved the world as to give the only begotten one, that whoever believes may not die, but have eternal life. god sent the only begotten into the world not to condemn the world, but that through the only begotten the world might be saved. whoever believes in the only begotten avoids judgment, but whoever doesn't believe is judged already for not believing in the name of the only begotten of god.

luke 19:37-42 (nrsvue)

as jesus reached the descent from the mount of olives, the entire crowd of disciples joined them and began to rejoice and praise god loudly for the display of power they had seen, saying, “blessed is the one who comes in the name of our god! peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!” some of the pharisees in the crowd said to jesus, “teacher, rebuke your disciples!” jesus replied, “i tell you, if they were to keep silent, these very stones would cry out!” then coming within sight of jerusalem, jesus wept over it and said, “if only you had known the path to peace today!”
