sharing signs of peace and welcome

gift of story

read by carol popp

psalm 33 (from opening to you, norman fisher) upright hearts delight in you. praise comes naturally. they play gratefulness on the harp... they sing you a new song, lifted gracefully, irresistibly.

for uprightness and justice are the shape of your love. the earth is full of your kindness... all that lives stands open-mouthed, awestruck; for in your speaking the unsayable word, all that is comes to be and holds fast.

you reduce the grand schemes of nations to nothing, and our little notions come to less than nothing. delighted is the people who love you from the center of all being. we do not escape our enemy, fears, and mortality by power. your vision is in those who see you, whose hope is your compassion and curiosity.

we sit in silence. we trust in your unsayableness. your kindness stirs us like a breeze that refreshes life around us from within.
