gift of story

read by deborah lawson

psalm 23 (adapted, tom mcdermott) attentive to the interconnected web of my being, i am content.

i rest in sweet grass and lie down by calm waters and am refreshed. i follow the path of justice, the divine path that unfolds in the way of peace. i walk in the midst of impermanence, i am not afraid; in darkness and in light, i am always in the presence of the all one . i am comforted, attending to my steps and the wisdom each step reveals.

even in the midst of adversity and fear, the table of life is set - a feast of unknown delight. inviting it all in, when i am certain my cup is empty, i discover i am embraced by abundance and the possibilities of kindness and goodness. and i will live my days in the eternal mystery of it all.
