gift of story

read by jon taylor

luke 5:1-7

once when he was standing on the shore of lake gennesaret, the crowd was pushing in on him to better hear the word of god. he noticed two boats tied up. the fishermen had just left them and were out scrubbing their nets. he climbed into the boat that was simon's and asked him to put out a little from the shore. sitting there, using the boat for a pulpit, he taught the crowd. when he finished teaching, he said to simon, "push out into deep water and let your nets out for a catch." simon said, "master, we've been fishing hard all night and haven't caught even a minnow. but if you say so, i'll let out the nets." it was no sooner said than done—a huge haul of fish, straining the nets past capacity. they waved to their partners in the other boat to come help them. they filled both boats, nearly swamping them with the catch.

mark 4:26-28

then jesus said, "this is what god's kingdom is like. it's as though someone scatters seed on the ground, then sleeps and wakes night and day. the seed sprouts and grows, but the farmer doesn't know how. the earth produces crops all by itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full head of grain.

the question is not death, nor life... the question is love - the kind of attachment with which we bind the fickle, changing, and uncertain to ourselves as if it were rock. - annie dillard (tom's adapt)
