philippians 4:8 (nrsv)

finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.

james 1:26-27 (nrsv)

if any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless. religion that is pure and undefiled before god, the father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

corinthians 10:3-6 (MSG)

the world is unprincipled. it's dog-eat-dog out there! the world doesn't fight fair. but we don't live or fight our battles that way—never have and never will. the tools of our trade aren't for marketing or manipulation, but they are for demolishing that entire massively corrupt culture. we use our powerful god-tools for smashing warped philosophies, tearing down barriers erected against the truth of god, fitting every loose thought and emotion and impulse into the structure of life shaped by christ. our tools are ready at hand for clearing the ground of every obstruction and building lives of obedience into maturity.

the question is not death, nor life... the question is love - the kind of attachment with which we bind the fickle, changing, and uncertain to ourselves as if it were rock. - annie dillard (tom's adapt)
