luke 5: 1-10 (common english)

one day jesus was standing beside lake gennesaret when the crowd pressed in around him to hear him teach. jesus saw two boats sitting by the lake. so jesus boarded one of the boats, the one that belonged to simon, and he asked simon to row it out a little distance from the shore. then jesus sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. when he'd finished speaking to the crowds, he said to simon, "row out farther, into the deep water, and drop your nets for a catch." simon replied, "teacher, we've worked hard all night and caught nothing. but because you say so, i'll drop the nets." so they dropped the nets and their catch was so huge that their nets were splitting. they filled two boats so full they were about to sink. when simon, and his partners, james and john, saw the catch, he fell at jesus' knees and said, "leave me, lord, for i'm unworthy!" jesus said to simon, "don't be afraid. from now on, you will be fishing for people."

there are all the paths to enlightenment.
those who arrive at their destination teach those who are still on the path, while those still on the path
are sources of wisdom for those who are teaching.
