gift of song

"mary catherine's ash wednesday journal entry "

music & lyrics: christine kane performed by the eleven:eleven revolution band

the welcome candle (rumi)

led by wes stevens

come, come whoever you are wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving, it doesn't matter

ours is not a caravan of despair come, even if you have broken your vows a thousand times!
come, yet again!

gift of story

read by bill lanford

matthew 17: 1-8 (nrsvue)

six days later, jesus took with him peter and james and john and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. and he was transfigured before them; and his clothes became dazzling bright, such as no one on earth could brighten them. and there appeared to them elijah with moises, who were talking with jesus. then peter said to jesus, "rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us set up three shrines, one for you, one for moises, and one for elijah." he did not know what to say, for they were terrified. then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, "this is my son, the beloved; listen to him!" suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only jesus.

benediction

thoughts for future reflection solvitur ambulando (it is solved by walking).

— latin proverb

when two people relate to each other authentically and humanly, god is the electricity that surges between them.

— martin buber

the world is too much to talk about. ideas and language, even the phrase 'each other,' doesn't make any sense.

— rumi

all that you touch you change. all that you change changes you. the only lasting truth is change. god is change.

— octavia butler
