gift of story

read by sandra buckner

john 15: 1-9 (nrsvue)

i am the vine; you are the branches. those who abide in me and i in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. if you abide in me and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. abba is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit as a part of me. as abba has loved me, so i have loved you. if you keep my commandments, you will abide in love, just as i have kept abba's commandments and abide in love.

tao te ching #51 (translation, mitchell) every being in the universe is an expression of the tao. it springs into existence, unconscious, perfect, takes on a physical body, lets circumstances complete it. that is why every being spontaneously honors the tao. the tao gives birth to all beings, nourishes them, maintains them, cares for them, comforts them, protects them, takes them back to itself, creating without possessing, acting without expecting, guiding without interfering.

that is why love of the tao is in the very nature of things.

"core value #5 – bringing life to life"

rev. tom m©dermott

gift of song

"shower the people"

music and lyrics: james taylor performed by the eleven:eleven revolution band benediction

thoughts for future reflection

"my whole life had been spent waiting for an epiphany, a manifestation of god's presence, the kind of transcendent, magical experience that lets you see your place in the big picture. and that is what i had with my first compost heap."

— bette midler

"between every two pine trees there is a door leading to a new way of life...when one tugs at a single thing in nature, he finds it attached to the rest of the world."

— john muir

"science without religion is lame; religion without science is blind...the important thing is not to stop questioning... never lose holy curiosity."

— albert einstein

"the river is famous to the fish... the loud voice is famous to silence, which knew it would inherit the earth before anybody said so... the tear is famous, briefly, to the cheek... i want to be famous in the way a pulley is famous, or a buttonhole, not because it did anything spectacular, but because it never forgot what it could do."

— naomi shehab nye
