Good Ol' Fashioned Methodist Potluck

Wednesdays, July 16 – August 6

6:00 – 7:30 pm | Wesley Hall | FUMCFW

This summer, let's share not only delicious food but also joyful fellowship! You're invited to our weekly Summer Potlucks, a time to gather, connect, and enjoy the blessings of community. Bring a dish to share, bring a friend, and come ready to laugh, love, and be refreshed in faith and friendship. Let's make this summer one of togetherness and gratitude — we can't wait to see you there!

Sacred Text

Psalm 77:11–14

as Interpreted by Kagan Parker

11. I remember the wonders of old how beauty rose from brokenness, how love held us when nothing else could.
12. I turn my thoughts to what is sacred,
and speak of the good that remains.
13. Your ways, Divine One, are wild and holy,
beyond compare, yet always near.
14. You are the Source of wonder
a quiet power that moves through every people, every prayer, every rising sun.

Thoughts for Future Reflection

“If we do not transform our pain, we will most assuredly transmit it.”

— Richard Rohr.

“We’re not trying to explain pain—we’re trying to give it a form that lets it rest in our hearts.”

— Gregory Orr

“Don’t get lost in your pain, know that one day your pain will become your cure.”

— Rumi

“Memories are bullets. Some whiz by and only spook you. Others tear you open and leave you in pieces. But every now and then, one comes back, and it heals you.”

— Richard Kadrey

“Rarely, if ever, are any of us healed in isolation. Healing is an act of communion.”

— Bell Hooks
