Sacred Text

Margaret Sutton

2 Samuel 6:12–16 (NLT)

Then King David was told, "The Lord has blessed Obed-edom's household and everything he has because of the Ark of God." So David went there and brought the Ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the City of David with a great celebration. After the men who were carrying the Ark of the Lord had gone six steps, David sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf. And David danced before the Lord with all his might, wearing a priestly garment. So David and all the people of Israel brought up the Ark of the Lord with shouts of joy and the blowing of rams' horns. But as the Ark of the Lord entered the City of David, Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked down from her window. When she saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord, she was filled with contempt for him.

Thoughts for Future Reflection

"Dance, when you're broken open... Dance when you're perfectly free."

— Rumi

"The body says what words cannot."

— Martha Graham

"There are spiritual technologies embedded in the body—song, dance, rhythm—that return us to the Source."

— Barbara Holmes

"In movement, I find what language loses. There, I pray, rage, love—without apology."

— Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui

"It's a dance to the music of time, it's the sound of the soul remembering its future."

— Toni Morrison

"The body is a site of liberation—when we reclaim it, we reclaim joy, we reclaim resistance."

— bell hooks

Summer Book Club: Folded Pages

Wed., June 25 | 6:30 - 8:00 pm | Room 154

Join us in June as we read "Preaching in Hitler's Shadow: Sermons of Resistance in the Third Reich" by Dean G. Stroud (last session).

Sun., June 22 | 12:30 - 3:30 pm

Meet us at the Kimball Art Museum to view their "Modern Art and Politics in Germany (1910 -1945)" exhibit. We'll gather in their cafe and after a quick bite (optional) we can experience the art of that era and see how the sermons of resistance are reflected in the art. You do not need to have read the book to join us.

Core Practice: Show Up for Others
