Sacred Text

Margaret Sutton

1 Corinthians 3:12-16 (NRSVUE)

Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw—the work of each builder will become visible, for the day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done. If the work that someone has built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a wage. If the work is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you?

Thoughts for Future Reflection

"Architecture has recorded the great ideas of the human race. Not only every religious symbol, but every human thought has its page in that vast book,"

— Victor Hugo

"The Church may have a building, but that is not its place. The building may be the church's location, but its space is in the shared humanity of its persons."

— Andrew Root

"Architecture is the reaching out for the truth."

— Louis Kahn

"The building is a shelter; the church is a life lived together."

— Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Core Practice: Mindfulness Meditation

The Buddhist Metta (Lovingkindness) Prayer, Adapted

My heart fills with loving kindness. I love myself. May I be happy. May I be well. May I be peaceful. May I be free.

If I have hurt anyone, knowingly or unknowingly in thought, word or deed, I ask for their forgiveness.
