Sacred Text

Read by Jay Krenek

Kings 19: 3-12 (CEB)

Elijah got up, ate and drank, and went refreshed by that food for forty days and nights until he arrived at Horeb, God's mountain. There he went into a cave and spent the night. The LORD's word came to him and said, "Why are you here, Elijah?" Elijah replied, "I've been very passionate for the LORD God of heavenly forces because the Israelites have abandoned your covenant. They have torn down your altars, and they have murdered your prophets with the sword. I'm the only one left, and now they want to take my life too!" The LORD said, "Go out and stand at the mountain before the LORD. The LORD is passing by." A very strong wind tore through the mountains and broke apart the stones before the LORD. But the LORD wasn't in the wind. After the wind, there was an earthquake. But the LORD wasn't in the earthquake. After the earthquake, there was a fire. But the LORD wasn't in the fire. After the fire, there was a sound. Thin. Quiet.

Thoughts for Future Reflection

"In the dance of existence, the most elegant moves are made when you're attuned to the rhythm of the unexpected."

✿ Eckhart Tolle ✿

"It is a mark of soulfulness to be present in the here and now. When we are present, we are not fabricating inner movies. We are seeing what is before us."

✿ John Bradshaw ✿

"As far as the laws of mathematics refer to reality, they are not certain; and as far as they are certain, they do not refer to reality."

✿ Albert Einstein ✿

"If I cease searching, then, woe is me, I am lost. That is how I look at it - keep going, keep going come what may."
